HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the caregivers of Paige Williamson.

Whereas, On April 29, 2006, the family of Paige Williamson gained a new appreciation of life;

Whereas, On that day, Paige Williamson was involved in a near-fatal car accident;

Whereas, The car in which Paige was riding was traveling at a high rate of speed in a residential area just a short distance from her home;

Whereas, Three of the four teens in the car were seriously injured, but none as seriously as Paige Williamson, who was ejected through the car's window and sustained multiple injuries;

Whereas, After being ejected, Paige landed in the yard of Troy Hunt, a volunteer firefighter with Hamilton Township who immediately began administering to her;

Whereas, When the EMTs arrived, Troy Hunt could have left Paige in their skilled hands, but he remained with her in the ambulance to Ball Memorial Hospital;

Whereas, Upon arrival at Ball Memorial Hospital, the emergency room staff swung into action;

Whereas, Dr. Brad Hayes, on duty in the emergency room that evening, quickly took the steps necessary to save Paige's life;

Whereas, Dr. Hayes and the emergency room staff inserted a chest tube into both of her lungs, a step credited by the Methodist Hospital staff with saving her life;

Whereas, Paige was taken by LifeLine helicopter to Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, where she continued her fight for life;

Whereas, The staff of the Methodist Hospital Pediatric Critical Care Unit gave Paige the best possible care;

Whereas, Paige Williamson initially was given a one percent chance of survival; but she overcame those odds;

Whereas, Paige was transferred to the Methodist Hospital rehabilitation floor just five days after her accident;

Whereas, Today Paige Williamson is a happy, healthy high school student who participates in sports and performs at a high level in the classroom; and

Whereas, It is through the efforts of many dedicated professionals that the life of Paige Williamson was spared; these people are shining examples of the dedication, compassion, and excellence of the medical providers in Indiana: Therefore,
